This is a guide on how to access and play Granado Espada Japan servers. Please follow this step:- 1. you need a VPN to connect japan server Download Vpn here 2. go to register your account using Open ID and Start download Read here This guide helps you on how to change the language (Japanese to English) Granado Espada in Japan. How do I change the language (English)? Please download and install it. And play free English Granado Espada in Japan. Are they the same? Steam has 3 Granado Espada clients (separated publisher). Granado Espada, Japan is almost the latest update (only slower than the Korean version). The Japanese version also has unique features such as support, buff, improve personal skill, combine attribute attack monster attribute, and much more. However, the new full patch is published on March 5, so there is no difference between the English version and the Japanese version. Patch notes 1. Events – GM Asoka's Blessing Event will end. – During this maintenance, gm asoka NPC Reboldoex will be cancelled. - [GM Asoka's blessing] buff will be removed in this diet. First, make sure you have a Japanese keyboard installed on your computer. Control Panel-> Clock, Language and Region -> Language Select Add Language and Find Japanese. Install a language pack and continue to restart your laptop when you have done this is a guide on how to access and play Granado Espada on Japanese servers. Please observe this basic rule to avoid suspicion of your non-Japanese origin: Keep a low profile. NEraida does not speak openly English. MMORPG always requires an active community. If you have a clan/faction or chat group, please post your clan/fraction forum or contact (and server) in the comments so that interested players can contact you. GE Japan Website – All links to the GE Japan website from this post will be using Google URL Shortener to hide link referer, after testing with Who is my Referer. 1. CREATE VIRTUAL PRIVATE NETWORK (VPN) GE Japan has ip block implemented, so you have to use Japan VPN to play. VPN Gate is a list of free public VPN. (Leave a comment if you have another public VPN to share.) You can set up by using any of the following methods: Microsoft SSTP . No software required. Just enter the host name, logon name, and password. SoftEther VPN. You need to install software that automatically updates your VPN list. It is possible that some public VPNs may have bandwidth limits, so disconnection may be an issue at times. 2. REGISTER GRANADO ESPADA (JAPAN) Go to GE Japan - Registration page. You can either manually register or use OpenID to automatically register with a different network ID Twitter, Google, Facebook). Note that manual registration requires an anti-bot check that includes Japanese characters. You can use Lexilogos or Linguanaut to help you with Japanese Japanese Input. 3. DOWNLOAD GRANADO ESPADA (JAPAN) Official download method uses custom installer. Start the VPN connection. To access GE Japan: Use Internet Explorer (7.0+) to download the client. Don't use other browsers like Firefox or Chrome. Log in to the website from the left sidebar. See the screenshot of the landing page above. Click the Download button to have an activex pop-up window. Internet Explorer will ask if you want to install NeflyLauncher. Click Install. If you see a security warning window in Internet Explorer, click Install again. The downloader will automatically open. Select the destination folder. Click the Start button in the lower-left corner to start the download. (VPN is not required during download.) When the download is complete, you can uninstall the Nefly Downloader from the Windows Control Panel. The files are located at C:\Program Files (x86)\Nefly. Alternatively, you can use these links to directly download installer v19.08.48 gaming client. Vpn is not required for download. You can use any download manager that you want to stop/resume downloading. Part 1 • Part 2 • Part 3 • Part 4 • Part 5 Install GRANADO ESPADA (JAPAN) Run GE_19.08.48_HUE_130710.exe install the game client. If you want to read Japanese characters when you install Windows (In English), install and run Applocale and load the game client installer. However, this is not really necessary. You can easily guess what the gibberish text says. 5. SET UP WINDOWS JAPANESE KEYBOARD If you want to enter Japanese characters in-game (for example, when searching for item In Market Manager), copy and paste the text from Jap GE to Wiki: Items notepad, then copy it again from Notepad, and paste (Ctrl + V) into the game client. Make sure that the Windows Language Bar is set to Japanese IME. 6. START GRANADO ESPADA (JAPAN) START VPN connection. Use Internet Explorer to open the GE Japan website. Login at the website manually or using Open ID. Click the GAME START button in the upper left corner of the home page. Let the game patcher run normally. (VPN is not necessary to patch the client, but it is necessary for the game to play.) If you don't want to use Internet Explorer as your default browser, you can easily create a shortcut. R-Click the shortcut automatically created on the desktop, and choose Properties. Change the target field to this: C:\Program Files (x86)\Internet Explorer\iexplore.exe Unlike an American or Singapore games client, a Japanese games client uses the website to log on. You do not need to log on again through the game client. The client uses the Japanese standard time (UTC+9) time zone. There are currently 3 servers to display on the logon screen. Some aspects of the game completely blow, you can not customize your characters, except buying them new clothes / hats, and it takes a very long time to load. It's far away from Lineage: x But new is pretty fresh and the environment is gorgeous to lose in Another feature I confirm (but am not sure I like xD): is how you can only get money (vis) with quests that require a lot of finding/ talking to NPC: great to keep farmers, but harder to get gear, especially since none of the quests I've done so far seem to be reproducible. The music is really nice. Techno and classical piano xDRegister1. Opens IE.2. Enter your email address (use gmail, don't seem to work with Yahoo) and click on the orange button.3. Live DAPSetupNote Link: If the Japanese IME is not already installed, you must do so and set up your computer to run in Japanese. Install the Japanese IME using Control Panel & Regional Language Settings (you need a Windows XP CD), and then change the settings to run all Unicode programs in Japanese. Reboot when you're done. After the Japanese IME is installed and the Unicode language settings are changed (if you have done so correctly, all C:\ \ directory paths will appear as C:.\. in Explorer). Install GE as shown on granadoespada.jp download page and then patch updates (take the time). To change the resolution/sound settings, go to your main programs folder (root:/Granado Espada/release/) and edit the settings directly in the user .xml file. Note: If your client crashes or whitescreens when you launch, check the resolution settings of the user.xml file, it seems that only accept 1024x768 and 1280x1024 and the numbers are accurate). By default, GE starts in window mode; Play in full screen mode, start the game and uncheck the second option in the lower left corner of the updater before clicking on the middle button (there are 3 on the bottom corner) to start the game. Korean quest guide - comprehensive, plenty of graphics, loads of slowJapane quest guide - compact guide, shows kanji / kana on NPC name (also heard some NPC have moved around around korean beta) english: Quick starter guide, written by someone who played the Korean OBRough walkthrough of starter quests, though not very complete [familyname] - PMs of other playerAlt + Z - opens city / zone karteCtrl + shift + leftclick - shows all drops on the ground, haven't found the button pickup yet D: although hey is amused by the system of labeling drops in the name of the family that killed them xDF9 - switching call /stop other characters from your mainCtrl+leftclick - /targetnext+/attackWhen talking to やめ第 or 後 - to exit w/ o accepting something (usually, if they are not searching for you, the first option is usually an exit option anyway) 行く – some NPC is able to send you back to the city after completing the quest , it's also usually the first option to be careful if you don't want to go back just yet買 – shop , although most NPC in the city use different kanji for trading that I can recognize but can not write xD; usually the second option, 4 kanji. You need to run through dungeons to do your MCC2 and 3 quests, I recommend just running all the way to areas marked in red on the NPC's quest card and from the first to the second area of the dungeon. You start with 10 heal pots and starter eq if you talk to Cloud Bonet (a scary sword seller in town with a gammy eye), keep pots on the dungeon run. I died a lot because I stopped to fight xD, but later realized mobs can't follow you through the case and they don't hit on much if you don't let them crowd you. p.s. GE is pretty but bunny BD & all Tags: Tags: Tags:
